SUB: CELEBRATIONS OF 150 YEARS OF VANDE MATARAM

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the Bharat Scouts and Guides, National Headquarters!

The Union Cabinet on 7 October 2025, has approved a nationwide celebration to commemorate 150 years of India's National Song "Vande Mataram", composed by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee and first published in Ananda math in 1882. The song, first publicly rendered by Rabindranath Tagore at the 1896 Indian National Congress session, became a unifying anthem for the Indian freedom movement, a cry for independence and a hymn to the motherland.

As highlighted by the Hon'ble Prime Minister on 26 October 2025 in "Mann Ki Baat", "Vande Mataram is not just a song; it is the heartbeat of our nation a tribute to Bharat Mata and the sacrifices that gave us freedom."

In line with this spirit and the Government of India's call for nationwide participation, The Bharat Scouts and Guides propose a celebration titled "Vande Mataram@150", involving Cubs, Bulbuls, Scouts, Guides, Rovers, Rangers, and leaders from across the country.

The initiative aims to rekindle patriotic pride, cultural unity, and the emotional connect with the song that inspired millions during India's freedom struggle with the following objectives;

- To celebrate 150 years of Vande Mataram as a symbol of national unity and pride.
- To engage young people in creative, musical, and digital expressions of patriotism.
- To promote cultural understanding and respect through art, music, and service.
- To strengthen the spirit of "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat" among our members.

Suggested Activities

1. Vande Mataram Singing Competitions

- Formats:
  - Virtual Competitions – Open to all Cubs/Bulbuls/Scouts/Guides/Rovers/Rangers via online submissions.
  - Physical Competitions – Organized at local, district and State

- Categories:
  - Solo singing
  - Group choir (unit-based)
  - Instrumental / fusion rendition (optional creative category)
- Evaluation Parameters: Melody, pronunciation, presentation, and patriotic spirit.

2. Vande Mataram Digital Expression Challenge

- Social Media Voting Competition:
Members post their #VandeMataram150 performance videos or creative interpretations (music, dance, art, or poetry).
  - Public voting through likes/shares on official BSG handles.
  - Top entries to be featured on BSG's national platforms and submitted to the Ministry of Culture.
- Reels & Short Video Competition:
Encourage young people to create Instagram/Facebook Reels and YouTube Shorts (30–60 seconds) themed on:
  - “Maa Tujhe Salaam”
  - “Vande Mataram – The Spirit of India”
  - “My Voice for My Nation”

Share on Social media Platform Hashtags to be used: #VandeMataram150 #BSGVandeMataram #MaaTujheSalaam #BSGINDIA

3. Vande Mataram Evenings

- Organized across all Units in the country on 07th November 2025 at 03:00 PM.
- Cultural evenings featuring music, poetry, dramatization of Ananda math, and patriotic dance performances.
- Scouts and Guides to lead Vande Mataram renditions in public places, schools, and community venues.

4. Grand National Highlight: “Vande Mataram @ 19th National Jamboree”

- A mass patriotic singing event with 30,000 participants from all over India at the 19th National Jamboree in Lucknow. All participants will sing Vande Mataram together — a historic and symbolic tribute marking 150 years of India's national song. We can Target a World Record

5. Quiz on celebrating 150 years of Vande Mataram:

https://mybharat.gov.in/quiz/quiz\_dashboard/UU4zamE2ZDE3a29KOGI6RIBiekdVQT09

Vande Mataram @150” is not just a commemoration—it is a reawakening of India's collective soul, reminding every member of The Bharat Scouts and Guides that service to the motherland begins with love and reverence for her. Through this initiative, The Bharat Scouts and Guides reaffirm its commitment to shaping young citizens who embody patriotism, unity, and pride in India's heritage.

Brief report with action photographs may kindly be forwarded to NHQ at girlprogramme@bsgindia.org with a copy of pro@bsgindia.org , so that the report can be published in BSG NHQ monthly magazine and BSG social media sites for the greater visibility of the movement.

Thanking You

Yours in Guiding

BRIEF PROFILE OF UTTAR PRADESH

Uttar Pradesh is a large, densely populated state in northern India, known as the "Heartland of India," with a capital in Lucknow and major cities including Kanpur and Agra. The state's landscape features the Himalayan foothills to the north, the expansive Gangetic plains in the center, and a smaller portion of the southern plateau. Uttar Pradesh is culturally rich, influencing Indian cuisine, literature, and the arts, and is home to many famous historical and modern figures.

1. Key Features

Geography: It is India's fourth-largest state by land area, bordering Nepal, and is characterized by the Gangetic plains and its southern plateau.

Capital & Major Cities: The state capital is Lucknow, with other major cities including Kanpur, Agra, and Varanasi.

Culture: Uttar Pradesh is known for its diverse culinary traditions, including Awadhi, Mughlai, and Bhojpuri cuisines, as well as its significant contributions to Hindi, Bhojpuri, and Urdu literature, music, and cinema.

Population: It is one of India's most densely populated states, though much of its population resides in rural areas.

Significance: Often called the "Heartland of India," the state is a vital part of India's cultural and demographic landscape.

2. History and Geography

The history of Uttar Pradesh is very ancient and interesting. It is recognised in the later Vedic Age as Brahmarshi Desha or Madhya Desha. Many great sages of the Vedic times like Bhardwaja, Gautam, Yagyavalkya, Vashishtha, Vishwamitra and Valmiki flourished in this state. Several sacred books of the Aryans were also composed here. Two great epics of India, Ramayana and Mahabharata, appear to have been inspired by Uttar Pradesh.

In the sixth century B.C., Uttar Pradesh was associated with two new religions - Jainism and Buddhism. It was at Sarnath that Buddha preached his first sermon and laid the foundations of his order, and it was in Kushinagar in Uttar Pradesh, where Buddha breathed his last. Several centres in Uttar Pradesh like Ayodhya, Prayagraj, Varanasi and Mathura became reputed centres of learning. In the medieval period, Uttar Pradesh passed under Muslim rule and led the way to new synthesis of Hindu and Islamic cultures. Ramananda and his Muslim disciple Kabir, Tulsidas, Surdas and many other intellectuals contributed to the growth of Hindi and other languages. Uttar Pradesh preserved its intellectual excellence even under the British administration. The British combined Agra and Oudh into one province and called it United Provinces of Agra and Oudh. The name was shortened to the United Provinces in 1935. In January 1950 the United Provinces was renamed as Uttar Pradesh.

The State is bound by Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh in the north, Haryana in the west, Madhya Pradesh in the South and Bihar in the east. Uttar Pradesh can be divided into two distinct regions

- (i) Southern Hills and
- (ii) Gangetic Plain.

3. Agriculture

Agriculture is the main occupation of 66 per cent of the population of the State. The net cultivated area in the state is 164.17 lakh hectares.

4. Transport

Roads: The total road length of PWD in the State is 146728 km. This includes 3820 km of national highways, 8391 km of state highways, 119726 of other district roads and 134517 km of rural roads.

Railways: Lucknow is the main junction of the northern network. Other important railway junctions are Agra, Kanpur, Prayagraj, Deendayal Upadhyay, Jhansi, Moradabad, Varanasi, Tundla, Gorakhpur, Gonda, Faizabad, Bareilly and Sitapur.

Aviation: There are airports at Lucknow, Kanpur, Varanasi, Prayagraj, Agra, Jhansi, Bareilly, Hindon (Ghaziabad), Gorakhpur, Sarsawa (Saharanpur) and Fursatganj (Rae-Barelli).

Festivals: Kumbh Mela, Prayagraj: The biggest congregation, perhaps of the world, Kumbha Mela is held at Prayagraj every twelve year and Ardh kumbh Mela every sixth year. Magh Mela is also held at Prayagraj in January when the people come in large number to have a dip in the holy Sangam. Among other fairs is the fortnight long Jhoola fair of Mathura, Vrindavan and Ayodhya, when dolls are placed in gold and silver jhoolas or cradles. A dip in the Ganga on Kartik Poornamasi is supposed to be the holiest and there are big congregations at Garhmukteshwar, Soran, Rajghat, Kakora, Bithur, Kanpur, Prayagraj, Varanasi and Ayodhya. A famous cattle fair is held at Bateswar in Agra district. Dewa in Barabanki district has become famous because of the Muslim saint Waris Ali Shah. Besides, important festivals of the Hindus, Muslims, etc., are widely celebrated in the State.

5. Tourist Centers

Uttar Pradesh has varied attractions for all kinds of tourists. Besides ancient places of pilgrimage like Varanasi, Vindhyachal, Ayodhya, Chitrakoot, Prayag, Naimisharanya, Mathura, Vrindavan, Dewa Sharief, Dargah of Sheikh Saleem Chisti in Fatehpur Sikri, Sarnath, Shravasti, Kushinagar, Sankisa, Kampil, Piprahwa and Kaushambi, places like Agra, Ayodhya, Sarnath, Varanasi, Lucknow, Jhansi, Gorakhpur, Jaunpur, Kannauj, Mahoba, Devgarh, Bithur, and Vindhyachal have rich treasures of Hindu and Islamic architecture and culture.

6. Prominent Places in Uttar Pradesh

Ayodhya :

The Ayodhya Ram Mandir in Uttar Pradesh is a grand Hindu temple built at the birthplace of Lord Rama, on the historic Ram Janmabhoomi site. Located on the banks of the Sarayu River. After a decades-long legal and religious dispute, the Supreme Court in 2019 cleared the way for its construction. The foundation was laid by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on August 5, 2020, and the temple was consecrated on January 22, 2024.

Built in the traditional Nagara style using pink sandstone and marble, the temple spans 380x250 feet with intricately carved pillars and shrines. It stands as a symbol of faith, heritage, and national unity, attracting lakhs of devotees and transforming Ayodhya into a major spiritual and tourism hub. It has emerged as the most visited destination in Uttar Pradesh, attracting a remarkable 135.5 million tourists between January and September 2024.

Varanasi:

Varanasi, one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world, holds immense spiritual significance in Hinduism. Located on the banks of the Ganges River in Uttar Pradesh, it is often referred to as Kashi or Benaras. The city is famous for its ghats—steps leading down to the river—where pilgrims perform rituals and ceremonies.

The Dashashwamedh Ghat is particularly notable for its evening Ganga Aarti ceremony, which attracts thousands of visitors. Varanasi is also home to numerous temples, including the Kashi Vishwanath Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva. Varanasi ranks third, drawing around 62 million domestic tourists and 184,000 international visitors in 2024. Known for its spiritual significance and vibrant culture along the Ganges River, Varanasi remains a key destination for both pilgrims and cultural travellers.

Mathura: Mathura is celebrated as the birthplace of Lord Krishna and holds immense importance in Hindu mythology. Located in Uttar Pradesh, this ancient city features numerous temples dedicated to Krishna and his divine exploits.

The Krishna Janmabhoomi Temple marks the exact spot where he was born. It attracts thousands of devotees daily who come to offer prayers and participate in rituals. Visitors can explore nearby Vrindavan, known for its lush landscapes associated with Krishna's childhood adventures.

Mathura also boasts local delicacies such as "peda," a sweet treat that visitors should not miss. The city has welcomed about 45 million visitors in 2024. The city's numerous temples and vibrant festivals, particularly during Janmashtami, have made it a popular pilgrimage site for devotees from across India and abroad.

Sarnath:

Sarnath is a significant Buddhist pilgrimage site located near Varanasi in Uttar Pradesh. It is renowned as the place where Gautama Buddha delivered his first sermon after attaining enlightenment at Bodhi Gaya.

The site features several ancient stupas and monasteries that attract both pilgrims and tourists alike. The Dhamek Stupa stands out as an impressive monument commemorating Buddha's teachings. It showcases exquisite carvings that depict various aspects of Buddhist philosophy.

Sarnath also houses the Sarnath Archaeological Museum, which displays artefacts from ancient times, including sculptures that illustrate Buddha's life story. Sarnath attracted approximately 12 million visitors in 2024, primarily pilgrims and tourists interested in Buddhism.

Prayagraj:

Prayagraj, holds immense religious significance as it is situated at the confluence of three rivers: the Ganges, Yamuna, and Saraswati (mythical). This historic city hosts the Kumbh Mela every twelve years—a major pilgrimage attracting millions who come for ritual bathing believed to cleanse sins.

Key attractions include Triveni Sangam (the confluence point), Anand Bhawan (the ancestral home of India's first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru), and Allahabad Fort, built by Emperor Akbar in 1583.

Prayagraj welcomed about 10 million visitors in 2024, with many coming for the Kumbh Mela and other religious festivals held throughout the year.

Vrindavan:

Vrindavan is renowned as one of the most sacred towns associated with Lord Krishna's life and exploits during his childhood years. Located near Mathura in Uttar Pradesh, this vibrant town features numerous temples dedicated to Krishna's various forms—each showcasing unique architectural styles and intricate artistry reflecting devotion through centuries past.

Notable temples include Banke Bihari Temple and ISKCON Temple, which draw pilgrims year-round seeking blessings from their beloved deity while participating in lively festivities like Holi celebrated with great fervour here.

Vrindavan's enchanting atmosphere comes alive during evenings when enchanting devotional songs fill streets lined with shops selling traditional handicrafts alongside mouthwatering sweets such as "laddoo." The city experienced around 8 million visitors in 2024.

Taj Mahal:

The Taj Mahal, located in Agra, Uttar Pradesh, is an iconic ivory-white marble mausoleum built between 1631 and 1648 by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan in memory of his beloved wife, Mumtaz Mahal. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is renowned for its stunning architecture, which combines elements of Persian, Islamic, and Indian styles.

The complex spans approximately 17 hectares and includes a mosque, a guest house, and beautifully landscaped gardens. The central dome, surrounded by four minarets, is particularly striking and has become a symbol of love and beauty worldwide.

The iconic Taj Mahal in Agra ranks second, with a total of 125.1 million visitors in the same timeframe. This includes approximately 115.9 million domestic tourists and 924,000 international tourists.

Dudhwa National Park:

Dudhwa Tiger Reserve is one of the finest few remaining examples of the exceedingly diverse and productive Tarai eco-system. The northern edge of the reserve lies along the Indo-Nepal border and the southern boundary is marked by the river Suheli. It is well known sanctuary of the swamp deer and is home to tigers, leopards, varieties of deer, antelopes, elephants, jackal, hyena etc, amid thick green forest and grassland. It is also a bird watchers heaven.

Jhansi: Jhansi is a historic city located in Uttar Pradesh known for its significant role during India's struggle for independence against British rule—most notably represented by Rani Lakshmibai, who led her troops valiantly during 1857's rebellion against colonial forces. Attracting history enthusiasts from around India & beyond alike, Jhansi Fort stands tall atop a hill overlooking this charming town, showcasing impressive architecture dating back centuries.

Visitors can explore various structures within, including palaces & temples reflecting regional artistry, while learning about local legends surrounding Rani Lakshmibai's bravery & leadership skills that continue to inspire generations today.

The city's historical significance, particularly related to Rani Lakshmibai and the 1857 rebellion, continues to draw history buffs and tourists interested in India's struggle for independence.

Bara Imambara:

As one of the gracefully simple structures, Bara Imambara has several round domes. Made in 1784, Nawab Asaf-ud-Daula created an architectural baldachin within the large structure. There's the somehow large prayer hall positioned toward the Qibla, several spacious courtyards, and the ever-popular and interesting 'Bhul Bhulaiya' which is a breathtaking network of skinny passages. This was made without a single nail or any wood being employed throughout the whole erection.

Hazratganj Market:

This beautifully protruding arch surrounded by Mughal ornamental tiles is one of the best structures that cannot be ignored by many as it symbolizes a lot of the history of the Mughal culture in Lucknow. It was created by Nawab Asaf-ud-Daula in the year 1784. This structure is 60 ft high and is designed in the

Dr. Ambedkar Park:

The Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Park is located in Gomti Nagar and is a great structure that commemorates the life and work of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar alongside other patrons of social reform. This large park built with red sandstone contains beautiful sculptures, manicured lawns, and a serene atmosphere. It's a wonderful spot ideal for evening strolls or family time.

Lucknow Residency:

The Lucknow residency is a very significant place that had great significance during the period of the First War of Independence, in the year 1857. This place was constructed during the period of Parkish colonization, and today, it stands as a peaceful mess with its gardens around it and a museum containing interesting materials and stories about the history of this particular area. This is surely quite an enchanting site for those who are interested in history.

DAY VISITORS

Visitors are warmly welcomed to attend the Jamboree, subject to prior approval from the Jamboree Director or Jamboree Secretary. One of the core objectives of the Jamboree is to provide a platform to showcase our activities, discipline, and the unique lifestyle within the camp. As we anticipate a significant number of visitors during various events, including interest from the general public, it is essential to maintain a structured and secure visit process.

All visitors must be introduced by a registered Bharat Scouts and Guides officer through the prescribed form, to be submitted at least 15 days prior to the Jamboree. This process is mandatory to ensure that each visitor receives an official Visitor Pass.

School students from nearby towns, including Lucknow and surrounding areas, will be permitted to visit the Jamboree from 25th to 27th November, 2025 between 9:00 A.M. and 9:00 P.M. Day visitors are not permitted to stay in the Jamboree site. The list of visiting students and accompanying teachers, along with their visit schedule, must be submitted to the Jamboree Secretary 15 days in advance. Visitor passes will be issued upon receipt of the following details:

Full name of students and teachers

- Name, email address, and phone number of the school Principal
- Contact details of accompanying teachers

To ensure a smooth and enriching experience for all, Scouts and Guides from each contingent will be trained to guide and inform visitors about the ongoing activities and programs. Additionally, volunteers will be stationed at the Reception Centre, which will be efficiently managed by the host State, to facilitate visitor interactions and provide necessary assistance.

Security and hospitality will go hand-in-hand to ensure that every visitor leaves with a positive and inspiring impression of the Jamboree.

INNOVATIVE HIGHLIGHTS

1. First Time in the History of National Jamboree Innovative Highlights

The 19th National Jamboree of The Bharat Scouts and Guides, being held at Defence Expo Ground, Vrindavan Yojna, Lucknow (U.P.) from 23rd to 29th November 2025, marks a historic milestone with the introduction of several modern, technological, and cultural innovations — all being organized for the first time in any National Jamboree

2. Two-Day Drone Show

For the first time, a grand two-day drone show will be organized, where hundreds of synchronized drones will illuminate the sky, narrating the story of Unity, Peace, and Youth Empowerment through light and motion. This show will celebrate 75 years of Scouting and Guiding in India and symbolize innovation, discipline, and patriotism.

3. Reimbursement of Food Cost

The Government of Uttar Pradesh has been very kind to reimburse the food expenses of all participants on an actual basis, subject to a maximum of ₹140 per participant per day for 7 days.

The objective of this first-time initiative by the Government of Uttar Pradesh is to ensure that no participant faces any financial constraint. All states are advised not to charge food expenses from their participants, as this facility is being provided under this special initiative.

4. It and Artificial Intelligence (AI) Hub

An exclusive IT & AI Hub will be established within the Jamboree campus — a first-of-its-kind initiative in Scouting events.

The hub will feature:

- Interactive AI-based learning modules on leadership, innovation, and sustainability.
- Tech exhibitions by students and innovators. This effort promotes the vision of Digital India and Smart Scouting.

5. WhatsApp Communication Network

A modern WhatsApp-based communication system will connect all participants, leaders, and officials during the Jamboree.

Real-time updates, notifications, and schedules will be sent directly to registered mobile numbers to ensure instant and transparent communication.

6. RFID Smart ID Cards for All Participants

This card will be used for:

- Entry and attendance management
- Real-time monitoring within the campus

This digital initiative enhances safety, transparency, and efficient management.

7. Amusement, Adventure & High Rope Activities

A premium Adventure and Amusement Zone will be established in collaboration with a professional adventure sports company.

The zone will include:

- High Rope Adventure
- Ground-Level Adventure Challenges
- Amusement Zone Adventure Activities

All activities will be conducted under the supervision of certified experts ensuring maximum safety and thrill.

8. “Air Agniveer” Exhibition by the Indian Air Force

A special “Air Agniveer” Exhibition will be presented by the Indian Air Force, showcasing defense technology, aviation awareness, and inspiring youth toward service and discipline.

This exhibition will include interactive models and live demonstrations.

9. 24×7 CCTV Surveillance with Advanced Cameras

The entire Jamboree area will be under complete CCTV coverage, equipped with:

- Night Vision Cameras
- Face Detection Cameras
- PTZ (Pan-Tilt-Zoom) Cameras

This system ensures round-the-clock security and efficient event monitoring.

10. Thematic Selfie Points

Several creative and thematic selfie points will be installed across the Jamboree area — promoting youth engagement, digital sharing, and visual appeal.

11. Green Jamboree and Clean Jamboree Initiative

---

A special focus has been placed on organizing a “Green and Clean Jamboree.”

- Use of eco-friendly materials
- Zero plastic policy

- Waste segregation and recycling drives

These initiatives reflect the Jamboree's commitment to environmental conservation and sustainability.

12. Skill Workshop

---

Interactive sessions on AI, technology, leadership, innovation, and creativity — empowering Scouts and Guides with modern skills, teamwork, and problem-solving abilities for a Viksit Bharat.

13. A New Era of Innovation and Inspiration

The 19th National Jamboree will redefine the Scouting experience by blending tradition with technology, adventure with discipline, and culture with innovation — truly marking the beginning of a new era in Indian Scouting.

17

THE OFFICIAL MASCOT OF THE 19TH NATIONAL JAMBOREE

1. Meet “Shardu” Official Mascot of the 19th National Jamboree

---

Meet Shardu, the proud mascot of the 19th National Jamboree of The Bharat Scouts and Guides. Inspired by the tiger, India's national animal, Shardu represents courage, leadership, and resilience—qualities that every Scout and Guide aspires to uphold. With his strong yet welcoming appearance, Shardu stands as a symbol of unity and discipline, dressed in the official Scout uniform and adorned with the tricolor scarf that reflects patriotism and pride. His presence bridges tradition with modernity, making him relatable to young participants while reinforcing the values of Scouting and Guiding. By embodying strength and determination, Shardu encourages every member to be brave, responsible, and service-oriented in their journey as Scouts and Guides. More than just a character, Shardu carries the spirit of the Jamboree within him. He represents adventure, friendship, and service to the nation, reminding participants that their energy and enthusiasm can drive real change. Whether featured on stage, in digital campaigns, or on merchandise, Shardu adds excitement and identity to the Jamboree experience. His story inspires youth to step forward with confidence, contribute to their communities, and carry the message of “Viksit Yuva – Viksit Bharat.” Shardu is not only the face of the Jamboree but also a companion who motivates Scouts and Guides to dream big and act with purpose.

THE JAMBOREE LOGO

1. The Jamboree Logo – Meaning Behind the Design

The logo of the 19th National Jamboree of The Bharat Scouts and Guides beautifully represents the spirit of unity, service, and celebration. At its heart lies the map of Uttar Pradesh, the proud host of this grand event, combined with the Diamond Jubilee emblem that signifies 75 glorious years of dedicated service to the nation. This central design not only reflects tradition but also connects the past with the present, reminding every member of the legacy of Scouting and Guiding in India.

Surrounding the emblem are symbols representing Educational Transformation, Prosperous Farmers, Heavy Investment, Health for All, Cultural Renaissance, Air Connectivity, Defence Production, Modern Transport, and Inland Waterways—illustrating the all-round progress of our nation and the contribution of the Scouts and Guides towards it. The bold typography emphasizes the grandeur and scale of the Jamboree, making it instantly recognizable. Completing the design, the tagline “Viksit Yuva – Viksit Bharat” powerfully conveys the vision of empowered youth as the driving force behind a stronger and more developed India, perfectly aligning with the mission of the Bharat Scouts and Guides
